

CNC OPERATOR – DAYSHIFT

Duties & Responsibilities:

- Operate CNC machines covering multiple controls.
- Ability to change tools / inserts.
- Understand tool offsets and have the ability to alter when needed.
- To work to drawings and specifications and take responsibility to check own work.
- Quality standard shall be met through effective use of first-off and last-off part approval procedures
- Shall be able to use and read Quality instruments and equipment to validate own work
- Demonstrates good understanding of engineering drawings and can produce to specification
- Able to work on own initiative and understand the manufacturing process.
- Keep a clean and manageable working area at all times.
- Fulfil training programs deemed necessary to allow for efficient performance and assist in your personal development.
- Take a responsible approach to health, safety and environmental risks in relation to your own job role and to control the risks or report them to management as appropriate.
- Any other duties as required, commensurate with the role of a CNC Operator.

Education and Experience:

- Completion of an approved apprenticeship or equivalent
- Previous work experience in an engineering/manufacturing environment.
- Ability to read and interpret drawings.

Oleo International is an equal opportunities Employer
Applicants must have the unrestricted right to work in the UK on a permanent basis

ELEVATOR

END STOPS

INDUSTRIAL

RAIL