

OLEO INTERNATIONAL

JOB OPENING

OLEO International is currently looking for experienced and driven candidates to fill the position of:

Buyer

Job Summary:

The role will require you to efficiently manage the Purchase Requisition and Purchase Order process to ensure that services to Oleo International are delivered on time and to budget.

This role will see you take responsibility for developing and maintaining current approved vendors as well as acting as a key business partner in the long-term procurement and supply chain plan, aligning capability to group requirements to meet its growth requirements.

Required Skills:

- Possess an HND / Degree Level qualification in an engineering or a manufacturing related discipline.
- CIPS qualified or working towards.
- Experience in procurement gained within a manufacturing / engineering environment.
- Possess experience in sourcing mechanical components / commodities.
- Proficient in the use of MRP software packages.
- Excellent communication skills and experience working in cross functional teams.

APPLY NOW!

If you feel you possess the relevant skills and experience, please send your CV through to:
Richard Edwards (HR Officer)

What we will offer you:

Competitive Salary

25 days holiday entitlement + bank holidays

Pension Scheme

Life Assurance x3 of salary

37 hour working week

Flexitime benefit

OLEO International is an equal opportunities Employer.